LBBW expands Corporate & Institutional Banking activities

Tobias Nafe to head business in the North America from New York

LBBW is pleased to announce, that Tobias Nafe has joined the New York Branch with New Year. He will be responsible for the Corporate & Institutional Banking efforts in the United States and Canada.

“Mr. Nafe’s proven marketing skills, strong customer relationships, and in-depth knowledge of the bank will be beneficial to our ambitions to further develop the corporate banking business globally and we look forward to his contributions”, LBBW’s Head of Americas Region, Leonard Crann said.

Mr. Nafe joined LBBW Group in Germany in 2005 and has extensive experience in corporate and international banking. Most recently, he was a Director in Global Trade & Export Finance where he was responsible for the development of relationships between the bank and large corporate customers in all matters related to international commercial business.
